

You Hold the Key to Unlock the Freedom of Your Hearts.
Arcturian Transmission via Dana Livoti

The understanding that is before you, is the understanding that you hold the key to unlock the freedom of your hearts.

You see beloved ones it is in this time space reality where we come to know that of what it is that we seek from a higher dimensional frequency. So it is to say that when you are experiencing discomforts here in your earthly existence we offer you the vantage point to see the discomfort through the lens of your God Self choosing experience for expansion, for integration back into the Wholeness, the Oneness of Eternal Creation.

So it is to say, that when you are faced at a crux in the pathway, it is for you to rise into the space of the You, that is You choosing. For when we offer you this perspective, it is for you to feel your trajectory from the vantage point of the freedom of your heart; the trajectory from your heart center, the portal of light, the feeling space.

Any and all discomforts Dear Ones, are your signposts to a better feeling reality. It is within this notion that you allow you being to take heed in its calling to incubate, nurture and feel the emotion of what in essence is truly causing you the discomfort. For you see, all too often from our vantage point, Beings chooses to bypass the crux of the emotion and allow oneself to be encircled in a continual looping of the emotion, the pattern, the tread so to speak.

So what it is that we wish to offer you at this present now moment in time is to take heed of the signpost, the wound, the pangs of discontent, and allow them to fester. Allow your inner light to nurture and speak to their wanting.

In this space you will begin to shape shift and form a new trajectory, a new time line will begin to emerge, with the newly planted seeds of intention from the vantage point of clarity, of freedom, of wholeness, of knowing, that indeed all paths lead home.

Within the Eye of the Creator, take heed of your internal whisper; feel, feel, feel, feel, heal.

It is we the Arcturians, bowing to the brilliance of your beacon of internal light.
We feel You, We honor You, We are You.
Blessed are you Beloved Ones.
Blessed Are You.
