

Beloved Ones, it is Mary. It is Mary. I am here with May, and we wish for you to ready yourselves for the embrace of the Sacred Stone, the Womb Stone as we wish for it to be known to you.

The Sacred Opal from the Ethiopian region of the Holy Lands. It is here that these precious stones are mined and resurrected at this time upon the Golden Age of Awakening.

We wish for you to feel the holiness of these gems, the power of grandeur that they possess is like no other sacred stone at this time. We wish for you to allow yourselves to connect into the hearth and fire of its sacred flame. The sacred flame of the Ethiopian opal holds consecrated remembrance of the divinity that is inherent to your holy wombs; the womb of the connection to the Akashic Houses of the Holy realms of your existence.

We wish to explain if we may, the Holy Records are housed within the orifice of the Akashic Records the house where the aspects of your creation are held. Think of it as a sacred womb that cradles and encapsulates the holiness of All That You Are. The Sacred Codes of Illumination can be invoked to reach these realms of Majesty. It is here that May and I hold the key for you to release into this threshold of Divine remembrance.

Your umbilical cord of golden light is the gateway of Illumination into this realm of remembering. It is through the Sacred Holy Fire of the Ethiopian opals that you will begin to loosen and lift the veil of perceived separation to reunite yourselves with the totality of All That You Are.

It is within this Akashic realm of wisdom that you will meet the aspects of your being that are in perfect harmonic resonance to the journey that you have chosen to traverse in this lifetime. It is here that you will meet the visions, apparitions of the You(s) that are wanting to merge into the wholeness of your Over Soul.

You see Dear Souls we wish for you to ease into the remembering of the holographic multidimensional awareness of the you that is here now within your physical forms. You house the keys and the codes of resurrection. The sacred opal flame is the flame of illumination. As you allow yourselves to illuminate the dim that has been shadowed from your consciousness you move into the space of remembering.

The path of the Awakened One lies within the remembrance of the totality of All That You Are. Gaze into the diamond faceted prism of light, Sacred Ones. It is through this holographic remembrance that you will find the path of illumination. You see the Ray of Illumination is the Ray of Remembrance, the Illumination, the totality of All That You Are, which Dear Souls, is the reflection of the Creator's Light.

You see, the umbilical cord's golden luminescence is your pathway into the orifice of the House of the Akash. It is here that you will journey into meeting the aspects of you that are wanting to offer their guidance, their support, their wisdom and knowing. It is here that you will remember that this life is a gift to be savored, to be alive, to be breathing in there breath of the Shekinah Light.

It is your inherent birthright Dear Ones, to live, breathe, create, and savor this World's joys. See through the opal's fire Dear Hearts, feel its sublime nurturing light glinted with the rays of Illumination. As you gaze into your precious stone of Illumination you will see the colors morph in and out of each other, weaving and coalescing with each other's signature harmonic, weaving new harmonic into form. The sanctity of this sacred stone is your remembering of the Magic and Majesty that you possess as Creator Lights incarnate.

Reconnect now Dear Souls, gaze into the sacred flame of the opal's offering to you, to see your journeys illuminated with the perception and clarity of the Shekinah Light.

Blessings are delivered. Your heart's beacon has been heard.

Holy, holy, holy, are you Sacred Ones. It is Mary.
